

Book Lovers Please Read!

How would you like to have your favorite book title immortalized at your favorite library? – Now you can!

In honor of the Whitehall Public Library's 50th Anniversary in 2013, local quilters and library lovers are creating a Golden Anniversary Quilt which will hang in the library.

The quilt, representing 50 Books for 50 Years, will display 50 children's book titles and 50 adult titles selected by our patrons. For a $100 donation to the library you may select a title to be stitched on the quilt. Choose a title that has personal meaning; a childhood favorite, or a book enjoyed by the family. Fiction, nonfiction, adult, or children's books--any title that has impacted your life or the life of a loved one.* Submissions are due by August 31st!

Your book will not only be recognized on the quilt itself, but also in a companion guide that the library will publish. The guide will recognize those that donated and will give each donor a written opportunity to express what their selected title means to them. The guide will be displayed with the quilt.

This exciting anniversary fundraiser not only benefits the library monetarily, but will result in a unique artistic tribute to our library's community of readers.

Plans for the quilt are underway; it will be unveiled in the spring of 2013 when the library officially recognizes its 50th Anniversary. The project must begin soon, as this hand-crafted treasure will take time!

So hurry! There are only 100 books on the quilt's shelf. They're going fast!

*Selected titles will be reviewed by the Library Director and Board of Trustees. If any title is deemed inappropriate, the donation will be refunded.
