

Whitehall Public Library

Books On Wheels
Delivery Service Policy

This service is designed for homebound library patrons.

Books on Wheels recipients must be residents of Whitehall.

Reading material is generally selected based upon specifically requested titles and/or authors. As a library we will do our best to meet customer expectations, but we are not ultimately responsible for ensuring that you will enjoy all of our selections.

Books will be delivered monthly by our dedicated volunteers. Volunteers donate their time, and provide their own vehicles and gas. Because the program is run on a volunteer basis, multiple deliveries during the month are not possible. Your patience is appreciated.

Please make sure that volunteers have convenient and safe access to your home.

Do not call volunteers directly, rather call the library for Books on Wheels-related matters. If the stipulations of this policy are not met, the library reserves the right to discontinue Books on Wheels service.

I have read and understand the conditions of this policy:
