Access your account information using the bookshelf icon.

Here, you can view current loans, download books, change holds, and other settings.

4. After tapping Borrow on an item, the eBook or eAudio still needs to be downloaded to the Kindle. Under Choose Format, select Kindle Book, then Confirm & Download.
5. When prompted, sign into your Amazon account.
6. Ensure the delivery location is correct (e.g., Sarah's Kindle) then select Get Library Book.

7. A message will appear that says your book will be downloaded to your Kindle.

NOTE: You can also use a computer to download books to your Kindle Paperwhite. Follow steps 2-7 above using a desktop computer, laptop, or tablet. The Kindle must be on and connected to the internet before the book will download to the device.

Troubleshooting: if your eBook doesn't appear on your Kindle, make sure you are connected to Wi-Fi and select "Sync Your Content" under the settings option.
